This easy walking, 2-kilometre, 2-hour pilgrimage will introduce you to a special area of Palmerston North with its stream, towering trees, blossom, birds and creepy crawlies.

Ideal for the family, grandchildren, those with limited walking ability...anyone! There will be time for reflection and we will end with an outdoor Communion service.

Meeting time: 1.30pm

Meeting place: Come in the main entrance to the Massey Campus and take the first turn on the left onto University Drive. A short way up University Drive on the right is a carpark. The pilgrimage will begin here.

CELEBRATE ST FRANCIS OF ASSISI

This great leader of the church left a legacy that is still relevant and challenging today. Jenny Hornblow will explore the life and teaching of the St Francis at a special 5pm service on Sunday 30 September. The Franciscan evening liturgy will be supported by the choir.

ITALIAN MEAL

Celebrate the feast day of St Francis with Italian cuisine and a glass of prosecco on Thursday 4th October from 6-8.30pm in the All Saints Community Centre. All are welcome and a koha for the meal would be appreciated. For catering purposes, if you're planning to attend please phone the Hornblows (3587824) by 5pm Saturday September 29. The evening will end with a short Franciscan Eucharist service.

CELEBRATE THE ARTS

There was a time when the church was the workshop for the the greatest art the world has known as it told the story of God through poetry, music, painting, drama, storytelling, sculpture and more. We need to re-discover our creative heart as a way of telling the good news of Jesus, of challenging the church and society more deeply and of leading all into a deeper experience of the great Creator.

Sunday October 7th at 5 pm: The Arts in the Bible. There will be light refreshments to follow the service.

Sunday October 14th at 5 pm: The Arts today for God's sake

The Community Centre will be open from 4 pm on these two Sundays for an exhibition by a number of parish artists (if you would like to exhibit or perform during this time please contact John Hornblow (jennyjohnhornblow@gmail.com or 021 437 566).
