THE VICAR'S VERBIAGE

Welcome to the services today, and welcome to our celebration of All Saints Day.

This is a day where we remember. We are not good at remembering, not in a way that is deep and grateful. How easy it is to remember the wrong things – small grievances, trivial concerns, bitter memories. How hard it is to remember the things that matter. The good we have received.

So think about the people who have shaped your life for good. The ones who saw you, who believed in you, whose actions can never be repaid. Think about the faith, hope and love you have received. Think about the lives you miss who are so precious. And give thanks. Remember and give thanks.

Forgetting is one thing the Bible carefully warns us against. "Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits..." (Psalm 103). "Remember your creator in the days of your youth, before the days of trouble come..." (Ecclesiastes 12). Remember, don't forget.

But our response to remembering is meant to lead to gratitude and praise. Worship. For everything good comes from our heavenly Father – and the people who have given to us are. His most precious gifts!
