NAU MAI HAERE MAI KI ALL SAINTS WHARE KARAKIA
Welcome to All Saints Church. It is wonderful to see you here today.

TODAY IS PENTECOST SUNDAY!

As Anglicans today we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit to the disciples of Jesus after his ascension.

BATTERIES ARE BACK!

(Or maybe that's "passing through") Since the recent problem with the battery recycling arrangements, there have been some discussion with PNCC about how to make it easy for our Parish family to do the right thing with this common but toxic waste material.

The end point we came to was that PNCC have lent us plastic bucket (complete with lid) for us all to put our used batteries into. When this is full we will walk it over to the Customer Services desk in the Square and swap it for a new one. So simple, so easy!

Now that it's all on again, remember to bring those batteries into church and add them to the white bucket at the office window.

ARE YOU A VIDEO WHIZZ? AN EDITING GURU?

If you are we could really use your expertise! We are looking for a bunch of people who would be able to help us with recording and editing different aspects of our church life. If you are someone who this all comes easy to, please talk to Andrew Carson.
